

Poetry Book Proposal Form

Please use the following template if you would like us to consider your manuscript for publication. Feel free to copy and paste from material you already have on the following questions. Please return the completed proposal and accompanying documents to submissions@beaconbooks.net.

A PROPOSED TITLE:

AUTHOR:

EMAIL:

ADDRESS:

B ABOUT THE AUTHOR

We are working with you as a person as well as with your words and so in this initial submission, we like to get any idea of who you are as an individual.

Are you part of any writing groups, or do you attend any open mic nights? All interesting for us to know!

We would love a third person (short) biography. You should include your past publication history in reputable literary journals and any competition success.

We are looking for writers who have are willing to engage with the marketing of their own work. Are you active online either through a blog or facebook etc. Are there any networks that you could tap into either online or real world groups?

C ABOUT THE BOOK

How big is your manuscript? Assuming you get one poem per page how many pages would it take up? What is the inspiration behind this collection? Is there a running theme or story behind the poems? Please include your finished manuscript or at least some sample poems with your submission form.

D MARKETING COMMUNICATIONS

Please write two or three short paragraphs giving a synopsis of the book. Think about why the reader might want to purchase the book when writing concluding remarks.